WEDNESDAY 11 MAY

Lord Nicholas Stern, President of the British Academy, will lead the conversation: In the wake of COP21. He will discuss the implications of the Paris Agreement (2015), the consequences of inaction and the means by which national and international markets can be effectively harnessed to reduce carbon emissions.

THURSDAY 12 MAY

Professor Ian Goldin, Director of the Oxford Martin School, will present the discussion: Looking into the Future. He will be looking ahead to the challenges that the EBRD countries and the world face in the next 25 years. What will these challenges look like a quarter of a century from now and what will that mean for doing business?
